

GR-138

Gran Canaria's Highlands

From Sunday, 26th April 2026 until Sunday, 3rd May 2026

Description:

The GR-138, also known as the Long-Distance Trail of the Cumbres of Gran Canaria, offers an unforgettable journey through varied and impressive cultural landscapes, recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

In April 2026, we will embark on an exceptional adventure as the central massif comes alive: a sea of endemic plants blankets the slopes in a kaleidoscope of colors, infusing the surroundings with an enchanting magic. This 70-kilometer trail connects unique ecosystems, diverse landscapes, and the rich historical heritage of Gran Canaria.

From rugged ridges to volcanic peaks and lush valleys, you will experience the fascinating diversity of the island. In a small group of seven hikers, you will have the chance to immerse yourself in the beauty and tranquility of these natural landscapes, surrounded by the fragrances of endemic plants and the interplay of light illuminating the majestic backdrop of mountains and ravines.

The GR-138 passes through historic villages like Tejeda and Artenara, ancient paths, and lush nature shaped by the island's unique microclimates. In the central massif, the pinnacle of the hike, we will be rewarded with breathtaking panoramas stretching far beyond the valleys to the Atlantic Ocean. Guided by experienced leaders, this adventure is the perfect opportunity to sustainably explore the natural wonders, cultural treasures, and silent magic of Gran Canaria – a one-of-a-kind experience that will remain etched in your memory!
